

Subject: End-of-Life Notification for HT20C15LQ

Dear Valued Customer,

Springfield Research is committed in forecasting customer usage of its products and arranging inventory levels to keep deliveries with reasonable delivery time. As a result you have always found our products in almost ready to ship status.

Because of the continuous technological advancements in semiconductors manufacturers we are facing severe difficulties in maintaining prices and productions scheduling for the HT20C15LQ and these issues are forcing Springfield Research to declare the End Of Life of this product.

We have limited inventory on hands that might help your production during 2024 that can be delivered at $22 per piece. We will consider your purchase order up to June 30 2024, with deliveries up to August 30 2024 after that Springfield will not guarantee inventory availability and prices for the HT20C15LQ.

Please dedicate some time to address this urgent matter, your reply recognizing this situation will be greatly appreciated.
